

Introduction of Nesting Habits of Birds

The reproduction in birds is carried out by laying eggs. They form nests and lay eggs. Whenever they have to lay egg they form a new nest. Birds build nests primarily to lay eggs in the nests and facilitate their young ones. Nests provide a safe environment for the babies to grow up.

