

Types of Waste

Throwing wastes in the streets are bad for all of us because harmful substances in the wastes are washed into the soil by the rain and enter into the underground water and pollute our drinking water. To keep the environment healthy these wastes should be treated. There are two types of wastes-

A. Bio degradable wastes

B. non- biodegradable wastes

