

Proteins

Protein is a nutrient that's naturally found in plants and animals. Proteins are needed for the body to function properly. Growing babies need more amount of proteins. They are also known as body building proteins.

Egg, fish, meat, cheese and pulses contain more protein. Different food contain different types of proteins. Therefore our food should include more than one source of proteins.

