

Geo-Thermal and Wind Energy

- A. This is the heat energy inside the earth.
- B. Geo means earth and thermal means heat.
- C. Inside the earth's crust there is a source of heat energy which can be used to generate electricity.
- D. Geo-thermal energy is an environment friendly and renewable source of energy.

Geo-Thermal and Wind Energy

- A. Wind energy is the energy that wind carries when it blows with a speed.
- B. It is also a renewable source of energy.
- C. When wind blows, it moves the fans of a windmill, which moves a turbine that generates electricity.
- D. Wind energy can only be utilized at places where it is very windy.

