

Pollution

Pollution refers to polluting the environment. It is also destroying our environment. Pollution is contaminating the atmosphere, especially air, water and land with harmful or poisonous substances. Air pollution is most common in cities. Vehicles, factories and houses are polluting the air by smoke.

Garbage from households and industries is thrown in the water bodies like rivers, and causing water pollution. Waste thrown in the open spoils land.

