

Recycling

Recycling is a very effective process, as it helps in reusing the product for further use. Recycling is an easy and very effective method to reduce the collecting of waste products like plastics, metals, rubber, cloth, paper etc. in dump sites. These materials should be recycled and then used again. It will help in reducing waste.

