

Introduction of Universe

At night when we look into the sky we see many things. We see stars, moon etc. among these stars there are some other celestial bodies which do not twinkle. These are the planets. Sun is a star while the earth is a planet.

