

Budget of an Individual

- A. Budget means the money or the amount to be spent in building a house.
- B. If an individual spends a large amount in building a house then the house will be of good quality, as the material would be of high quality.
- C. It also decides the size of a house as a large and well-designed houses require more money.
- D. On the other hand, if a person has low budget, he will not be able to build a big house with various facilities in it.

