

Subject and Predicate

Subject in Different Sentence Types

i. Imperative Sentences

- The subject is always “you”, though it is not explicitly stated.

Examples:

- Stand up. (You stand up.)
- Come here. (You come here.)

ii. Interrogative & Exclamatory Sentences

- Convert to a declarative statement to find the subject.

Examples:

- Where does Harpreet live? → Harpreet lives in Punjab. → Subject: Harpreet
- How beautiful the rainbow is! → The rainbow is very beautiful. → Subject: The rainbow

Points to Remember

- Subject: Who or what the sentence is about.
- Predicate: Tells something about the subject.
- Subject = Noun/Pronoun (single word or phrase)
- Predicate = Contains verb (stated or understood), single word or phrase.

Practice Sections from the PDF

A. Identify Subject and Predicate

- Divya, Kavya and Ramya went on a jeep safari.
- Subject: Divya, Kavya and Ramya
- Predicate: went on a jeep safari

B. Tick the Correct Option (Subject or Predicate)

- Sunita Williams is a famous American astronaut. → Subject: Sunita Williams

C. Fill in the Blanks (Subjects or Predicates)

Examples:

- _____ won IPL 2024. → Example: Chennai Super Kings
- _____ is known as iron lady of India. → Example: Indira Gandhi

D. Circle Subjects in a Paragraph

- Example: Sunita Williams is an American astronaut.
- Subject: Sunita Williams

E. Write Subjects for Given Predicates

- _____ bought me a lovely dress. → Example: My sister

Learning Outcomes

- By the end of this chapter, students will:
 - Identify subjects and predicates in different sentence forms.
 - Understand how to convert interrogative/exclamatory sentences to statements for grammar analysis.
 - Apply this knowledge through reading and writing tasks.

Would you like a worksheet or quiz based on this note?

