

How Nutrients are Replenished in the Soil

Nutrients can be replenished in the following ways:

Fertilizers and manures contain plant nutrients such as nitrogen, phosphorous and potassium etc. So, when fertilizers and manures are added to the soil in the fields, then the soil gets enriched with nutrients like nitrogen, phosphorous and potassium, etc. Rhizobium also makes soil rich in nitrogen.

