

IMPORTANT SPELLING

- Savings Account: a bank account that earns interest; generally used for money that you don't plan to spend immediately.
- Checking Account: a bank account that allows easy access to your funds; typically used for everyday expenses.
- Certificate of Deposit (CD): a savings product with a fixed interest rate and term; penalties apply if you withdraw the money early.
- Joint account: one that two or more people share. It is usually used by couples or people who work together.
- Money Market Account: a type of savings account with better interest rates and a higher minimum amount.
- Trust Account: an account managed by one person for the benefit of another; commonly used in estate planning.
- Business Account: an account used for a business; helps to separate personal and business expenses.
- Retirement Account: an account for saving money for retirement; offers tax advantages.
- Student Account: a bank account with features specifically designed for students; may include lower fees.
- Escrow Account: an account where a third party holds funds; used in transactions where parties need assurance.