

Modern means of Communication

What is Communication?

Communication means sharing messages, ideas, or information with others.

Today, we have many fast and easy ways to talk to people. These are called modern means of communication.

Modern Means of Communication:

i. Mobile Phones

- We can call, message, or video chat with others.
- Easy to carry everywhere!

ii. Telephones

- Let us talk to people in faraway places.

iii. Computers & Laptops

- Help us send emails and chat online.
- Also used for video calls.

iv. Emails

- Send and receive messages, photos, and documents quickly.

v. Television (TV)

- Helps us know about news, weather, and entertainment.

vi. Radio

- We can listen to news and music.
- Used while traveling or working.

vii. Newspapers

- Give us daily news and information.

viii. Internet

- The fastest way to get and share information.

-
- We use it for learning, chatting, shopping, and more!

Fun Fact:

You can send a message in just 1 second using a mobile phone or the internet!