Hi, I am EeeBee

Countable and Uncountable Nouns

Learning Outcomes

- Students will distinguish between countable and uncountable nouns, identifying their characteristics and appropriate quantifiers (e.g., "many" for countable and "much" for uncountable).
- Students will apply countable and uncountable nouns accurately in sentences, demonstrating proper grammar and vocabulary in various contexts.

Lead in

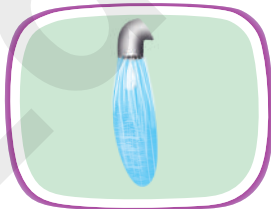

Look at the pictures given below and try to count the number. Write the number in the box provided. Write 'No' for the things you cannot count.

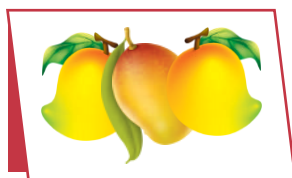

Countable Nouns

Nouns that we can count by using numbers are called countable nouns.

Look at the pictures and read the following words.

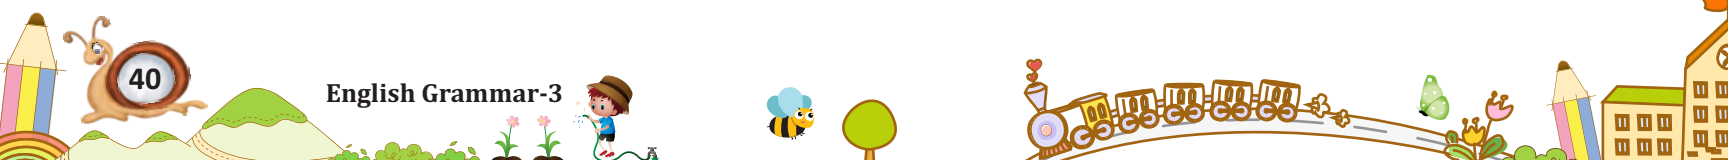

two toys

three mangoes

four rabbits

three kites

five pens

three ducks

We can count the above things by using numbers like two toys, three mangoes, four rabbits, three kites, five pens and three ducks.

So, these nouns are countable nouns.

Grammar Byte

- Countable nouns have both singular and plural forms.

Uncountable Nouns

We cannot count some things in number.

Look at the pictures and read the words given below.
